

Marketing, Branding, and Storytelling

Christian Citlali, M.S.W., Martina Durant, M.P.A., and Allen Fowler, M.A. | October 7, 2024

Indigenous Land Acknowledgement

- We respectfully acknowledge that we live and work in territories where indigenous nations and tribal groups are traditional stewards of the land. Our California office resides in Tongva territory.
- Please join us in supporting efforts to affirm tribal sovereignty across what is now known as California and in displaying respect, honor, and gratitude for all indigenous people.

- Assume best intentions.
- Take space, make space.
- Share what you are comfortable sharing.
- Protect individual privacy.
- Practice self-care.
- Encourage growth of self and for others.
- Support resource sharing.

Today's Learning Objectives

- 1. Understand the importance of branding when marketing and telling your stories.
- 2. Explore how to leverage relevant data to design a robust marketing and outreach strategy.
- 3. Understand the nuances of leveraging various platforms to maximize engagement.
- 4. Learn how to develop and apply engaging storytelling techniques designed for diverse audiences and showcasing the stories of clients, staff, and community members to promote your program.
- 5. Understand how to measure your marketing success and adapt to improve.

Defining Terms

- Marketing: Strategic process of promoting and communicating your organization's programs, services, and offerings.
- Branding: Graphic or phrase that connects to your organization and represents your values or mission.
- Outreach: Active effort to connect, build relationships, and provide information to diverse audiences.
- Target Audience: Specific groups or demographics the organization aims to reach with tailored marketing and outreach.

The Power of Data

Data Is Your Compass

To improve community and stakeholder engagement and recruitment outcomes, you need a marketing and outreach strategy that engages, informs, and sparks action within your target audiences.

Know Where You Are to Know Where You're Going

Best Practice Tip

Start Small

- Limit yourself to one or two platforms.
- Work to create a clear, vibrant presence.
- Don't be discouraged if it takes some time to gather momentum.

Social Media Toolkit

Target Audience

Who is underrepresented in your active community partners and connections?

What kind of donor are you hoping to engage with?

Who is underrepresented in your staff?

What pipelines do you need to start building?

Message

What is the takeaway you want your target audience to leave with?

How does your branding connect to your message?

What is the call to action? Is this call to action clearly communicated?

Resources

What wraparound supports are needed to maintain engagement?

What partnerships need to be developed?

What tools are needed to cast a wider net?

Multimedia Marketing and Outreach

- Help you see when you need to course correct.
- Guide your content and strategy.
- Inform how to focus your budget and resources.

Social Media Toolkit

Deciding on the Right Analytics

You might consider some third-party tools for tracking social media performance, such as the following:

- Hootsuite
- HubSpot
- Google Analytics

When deciding on the third-party tool, revisit your strategy and your goals.

- What data will help you evaluate your set of outcomes?
- Which tool can give you this data?
